ROCK ISLAND COUNTY SENIOR CENTER
2221 - 11TH STREET
ROCK ISLAND IL 61201

RIM Rural Transit celebrated its grand opening on Monday, March 22, 2010 with a ribbon cutting at the Andalusia Lion's Club. Rock Island County Board Chairman James Bohnsack was present to express his support of the new transportation program along with Chelsey Waterman, Planner, Bi-State Regional Commission; Curt Morrow, Mayor of the Village of Andalusia; Mo Hart, Executive Director of Project NOW; and John Lowery, Senior Services Director for Project NOW.

Rim Rural Transit is a public transportation service that will operate outside of the metro Quad Cities. Rides must originate or terminate in an area not currently served by Metro Link. Residents of rural communities in Rock Island County and Mercer County can access this service Monday through Friday, 8:00am-5:00pm. This is public transportation. There are no age restrictions other than children 12 and under must be accompanied by parent or guardian.

Passengers may use this service for trips to medical or social service appointments, job related activities, grocery shopping, or even a visit to the theater or mall shopping. One way fares to ride the RIM are reasonable at 1-20 miles, $3.00 21-40 miles, $5.00; and 41 miles or more, $7.00. Residents may arrange for rides by calling (309) 788-6335, or toll free at (800) 788-6308.

Census 2010

Just a friendly reminder to fill out your census forms this year. The 2010 census helps ensure that your community receives its fair share of government funding. It helps in several areas such as public health, education, transportation and senior services.
