

The Promise of Community Action

Community Action changes people's lives embodies the spirit of hope, improves communities and makes America a better place to live.

We care about the entire community and we are dedicated to helping people help themselves and each other.