GUIDELINES AND APPLICATION
UPDATED: AUGUST 12, 2019

THE PROGRAM

Project NOW, Inc. CAA is very pleased to offer the Community Services Block Grant Scholarship Program. The scholarship program is designed to provide financial assistance to low-income and disadvantaged persons of high academic attainment or potential with preference given to applicants of racial or ethnic minorities. The scholarships provide formal education or occupational training at an accredited Illinois institution to CSBG income-eligible clients with particular consideration given to fields of study in high technology areas or other growth occupations. Education and training made possible through the scholarships include short-term training (two years or less) in high technology or growth occupational skills, or general post-secondary education. Scholarship awards including the name, field of study intended and city of each recipient will be released to the local print media.

ELIGIBILITY CRITERIA

Applicants must:

- Reside in Rock Island, Henry or Mercer Counties
- Be planning to enroll in an undergraduate course of study at an Illinois accredited two-year or four-year college, university or vocational-technical school
- Show financial need
- Be CSBG income-eligible

AWARDS

If selected as a recipient, the student will receive up to a $500 award, which must be used for educational expenses.

APPLICATION DEADLINE

Interested students must complete the application and mail it along with essay, proof of household income, LINK card and Medical Card, Photo ID, reference letters, class schedule and transcripts, and copies of social security cards from each member of the household and letters of recommendation to Project NOW.

SELECTION OF RECIPIENTS

The criteria used to select the scholarship recipients are: clarity and completeness of the application, the essay, letters of recommendations, participation in community activities, and career goals. Preference is given to participants who plan to pursue a career in a high technology or growth occupation.

AWARD PROCEDURE

Applicants will be notified by mail 45 to 60 days after application of the scholarship award. Payment to the institution can be activated only on proof of registration. The recipient will also be informed how the scholarship may be applied. In case of withdrawal from the educational or training institution, all unused portions of the award will be refunded to Project NOW.
